The Village of Croton-on-Hudson Board of Trustees is seeking to amend Chapter 230, Zoning, of the Village Code to update regulations for the keeping of domestic animals and farm animals on residential properties. Currently, there are limited regulations for the keeping of animals. These regulations include generic terms such as fowl that are not defined elsewhere in the Village Code. The Board desires to provide definitions of domestic animals and farm animals to provide clarity to residents as to what is and is not permitted on residential properties within the Village.
