Ken & Jacqueline,
My name is Craig Turnbull and I relocated to Voorheesville a year ago after 20 years in the Detroit area, though I'm originally from here, grew up in Pittsfield and graduated from Siena in the '80s. I'm emailing today to inquire about the Orchid Tree Yoga retail location adjacent to the soon to be opened Mixed Breed Brewing in Guilderland Center.

I spoke with Danielle at the Chamber who gave me your names and contact info.

I currently operate a side business called Bull & Basil Wood Fired Pizza. Since the spring I have sold my wood fired pizzas out of a best in class mobile pizza oven at area breweries (primarily Fort Orange Brewing in Albany) and farmers markets - having worked with Scott to serve my pizza at the Guilderland and Albany Farmers Markets this past summer.

I am very interested in opening a small pizza restaurant at that retail location and believe our business would be a perfect complement to Guy's brewing operation while serving as a local restaurant for the Guilderland area. I'm meeting with Joe Maloney, the listing agent, on Monday to learn more about the space.

While I realize there is a lot to the process of opening such a facility, I am hoping you can provide me with some basic information regarding the various town and building requirements.

Thank you in advance for your assistance,

Craig Turnbull
